

Final Mission

Hi everyone,

I must have been in Australia for 2 weeks already now and I still have a lot to see with my best friend Axelle. Australia is amazing, there's a lot of snake and guess what...I love them, they're so adorable and Ax is afraid of them (her reaction when i put a snake on her shoulders was hilarious (UwU)).

We have already been to Western Australia, Queensland and Tasmania (We saw Taz (reference to looney toons) (^w^))

We have not done a hot air-balloon trip yet but it's on the check list but we have already fished, hiked and we have done bungee-jumping and Ax was screaming and crying it was funny and we saw a replay of an AC-DC concert.

We still have 2 weeks of vacation and lots of things to see and do, it would be looooong but I can't wait to see the face of Ax when I tell her we will go see whales.
