

 Hi I'm Agathe, I've been wanting to go to Australia for a while now and I've been for 2 weeks now and I've already seen so many great things but my trip over yet, I still have 2 more weeks to finish seeing everything that has to be seen here.

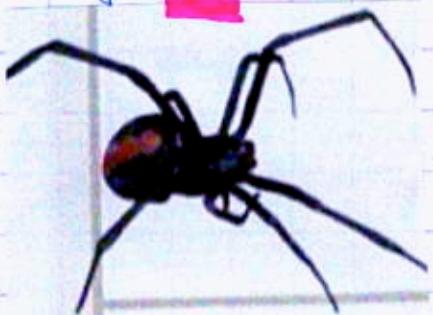

First of all I arrived in South Australia where I could see a lot of cute Kangaroos and then I went kayaking and there were lots of thrills. After a few days I went to Tasmania where I saw some beautiful waterfalls. If Kayaking has a lot of tension this hike has more tension for me. After all

I went to Western Australia where I could do climbing, biking, surfing and many other activities. I went to New Wales to go to Sydney for the opera and you won't believe me but I saw a spider redback that gave me the creeps. And yes it's already been 2 weeks that I've been in so much Queensland rainforests and the crocodiles for whatever downhill skiing. And there my journey will be finished and I will return in French. See you soon for new adventures!

I had a lot of days I went went hiking and waterfalls lot of tension more tension this I went

Australia and I have left to do like with the great Barrier Northern Territory with and finally Victoria
